

Ellie Gahan- S.T.A.R.S

Ellie started dancing at the age of 9 at Dance with France. She started in jazz hip-hop and then did more styles like; modern, contemporary, tap, ballet, pointe and hip-hop. From the age of 9 to the age of 18, she completed all of her S.T.A.R.S dance exams. She didn't stop there as when the time came, she completed the S.T.A.R.S teaching program. Ellie went to Central Memorial High School for the Performing and Visual Arts (PVA) program for dance. There she trained five days a week for three years. The styles she trained in were classical ballet, contemporary ballet, jazz, hip-hop, Bollywood, swing, tap. The best part about the PVA program was going to New York in grade twelve and taking classes there like tap, turns and jumps class, Horton technique class. Miss Ellie still enjoys learning more about dance and how to improve every day.
