

Elescia Chelsea - dancer and choreographer

Elescia Chelsea, is a dancer and choreographer, born and raised in Calgary. With a dance journey beginning at a very young age, she was first introduced to technical styles, training in ballet, jazz and contemporary. She began integrating hip hop and various street styles into her training, and soon grew a heavy passion for these genres. Elescia began training and performing with illFX Education and Company four years ago and has since trained with many acclaimed choreographers in the industry such as, Luther Brown, Scott Forsyth, and King Guttah. She has performed and competed in competitions across Canada and Internationally including Toronto, Los Angeles and Mexico. Elescia's goal is to share the knowledge that she acquires on her journey to help continue to build the Calgary dance community and ultimately help others find their passion and personal expression through dance.
